

The Gantt chart displays the schedule for the 2019-2020 academic year, organized into four main color-coded sections: Blue, Red, Yellow, and Green. The x-axis represents time, with labels from 9-26 to 12-16. The Blue section at the top includes a long horizontal bar and several smaller bars below it. The Red section in the middle consists of a large block of horizontal bars. The Yellow section at the bottom includes a long horizontal bar and several smaller bars above it. The Green section at the very bottom consists of a large block of horizontal bars.
